

Experienced Data Protection Consultant (M/F)

Permanent contract or freelance

Luxembourg

Experience level

3 years +

Your mission and tasks

As a consultant in our Data Protection Advisory department you will help our team and realize the following tasks:

- Assist and guide clients to ensure compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) requirements on technical, legal and organizational aspects, including:
 - Identify the processing operations involving personal data, evaluate and mitigate the risk concerned
 - Conduct “Gap Analysis” of the current situation and determine the relevant technical and organisational measures necessary to ensure compliance
 - Have a positive role in project management (planning, follow-up and end-of-mission reports)
- Ensure a legislative intelligence, know the law and follow-up on corrective actions to implement
- Conduct awareness programs and/or training on data protection topics
- Accompany or take the role of external Data Protection Officer

Your profile

- You have a university degree in law, economics, business administration or IT
- Experience in a similar position is a strong asset
- You have a good knowledge of data protection legislation, including GDPR
- An experience in auditing or a training in audit will be considered as an asset
- A certification such as CIPM, CISA, CIPP-E or CIPT and any other certification will be considered as an asset
- You are fluent in English and in French (required). Any other language is an asset

Your strengths

- Ability to work autonomously
- High degree of confidentiality
- Excellent analytical and synthesis skills
- Rigorous
- Organization
- Flexibility

- Reactivity
- Team spirit
- Sense of customer service

What we offer

- A permanent contract or freelance contract
- An attractive salary package adapted to the responsibilities associated with the position
- A real challenge in a stimulating working environment within a young, passionate and dynamic team highly qualified in the field of data protection
- Customers from diverse business sectors and diverse projects
- In-house support and appropriate external training, if needed

Application

To apply for this job, please send us your application letter and your Curriculum Vitae at info@mgsi.lu

Without any response from us within 15 days, please consider that your application has not been accepted.